FRIDAY, JUNE 3, 1864.

M. RIESTRA'S SCHEME.

The depreciation of our paper money is so obvious an evil that it can be tolerated no longer. Unhappily, however, the reformation of our currency will deprive many persons of a livelihood, and for this reason, no matter how sound the measure, how feasible the plan mooted, it is as a general rule vetoed on the Bolso.

D. Norberto Riestra has at last had the courage and patriotism to propose a means for redeeming the paper dollar. His plan is shown easy, and practicable, nevertheless it is laughed at by the brokers, and we hear will be hooted in the Chamber. We believe that many of the parties who sneer at Mr. Riestra's scheme, have never even taken the trouble to study it, yet their opinion on so abstruse a subject passes current, and amongst superficial economists carries a greater weight than the profound calculations of the first financier of the River Plate.

We are not prepared to say that Sor. Riestra's project admits of no improvement, since there are many points which bear the stamp of a hasty judgment, but what we do say is, that we think it is deserving of a trial.

Mr. Riestra must recollect that in attempting to reform the paper currency he has to contend with an evil which is impoverishing the country at large, yet enriching a very influential circle; he therefore should bear in mind that in attempting the task he has, he must less consult the resources of the country to meet the payments, than conciliate those paper monopolists, who have built up colossal fortunes on the disgrace and dishonor of our paper money.

It is also essential that Mr. Riestra should bear in mind the remote and immediate causes which radically adulterate our paper. The last emissions, for no emissions have taken place for the last two and a-half years, and yet nevertheless paper money has depreciated more than ever during that period, still less is the depreciation caused by forgeries; for notwithstanding the facilities, all forgeries on a large scale have been detected, and on a small scale falsifications don't pay, owing to the utter impossibility of passing off in any large quantities small notes.

What then is it which causes our circulating medium to depreciate so rapidly? It is, we assert, that industry of the country does not keep pace with the civilization, (i. o. extravagance).

Now we approve of M. Riestra's plan to redeem the paper currency, and believe that if tried it will work well. But we though it is but prudent to be aware that if our paper money were, instead of fluctuating, convertible, twelve months would not pass over before a crisis of bankruptcy would ensue.

The Argentine Republic to-day is like a fashionable clerk, whose salary is say five thousand dollars per month and whose expenditures are double the same. He holds the books himself and keeps the cash; the result is that he pays his every bill, even the washerwoman, pays the tailor and barber with the greatest punctuality, but how are his accounts? How is the cash? His patron or employer calls him to account, and he answers the accounts by putting his own value or I O Us into the drawer for cash.

If M. Riestra's scheme is adopted and carried out all this will be changed, and before a few months pass over there will be an alarming deficit in the cash.

If the Aumbuy paper dollar is abolished, and a convertible currency introduced, unless we retrench our expenses, either a loan must be made, or a bankruptcy ensues.

We have the highest opinion of Don Norberto Riestra. We know that he honestly intends to reform the currency, but we feel bound to assure him that the root cause of the great depression in latter years is the want of economy, the prevalence of habits of extravagance.

Before the currency it is necessary we begin at the Custom House, not the Bank. To use an American expression, let us put extreme taxes upon notions, and adopt stapies free.

The paper money subject is so abstruse that it is not in the limited columns of a newspaper the matter can properly be discussed, but it seems certain that if M. Riestra's scheme be adopted, and a loan made each year to cover the difference between our imports and exports, the currency will be reformed within a few years, signed, and one or two of our private banks emit all the bank notes which henceforth shall circulate in the Province.

THE OPERA OF MARTA.

This splendid lyric composition of Flotow was given to the Buenos Ayrens public for the first time on Wednesday evening. Colon was crowded, and at least three-fourths of the audience were English or Germans. The overture was beautifully played and loudly applauded, the orchestra being more than usually effective, as several German gentlemen of musical talent had volunteered their assistance.

The plot of Marta is laid in England at the commencement of the 18th century. Harley is the role of the heroine (Enrichetta), Molla that of Nancy, and Sir Tristram, ally disguised in humble apparel, they meet Lionel and Plunkett who engage the two girls for domestic service. The duet "Non dos (Scaume' was well sung by Lelmi and Walter.

Lionel, represents Enrichetta and Nancy to their new home, for the jobe cannot be undone as they have accepted the earnest money. Their unfitness for domestic occupations they know not even how to spin, and while Plunkett and Lionel essay to teach them we are treated to a very pretty scene between Nancy and Lionel who is discovered in the act of teaching Nancy how to spin with precision, and Marta presents her lover with a rose, while she sings the enchanting Irish melody, "The last rose of summer," or "Flower of Blarney," but immortalised by Moore as "The last Rose of Summer." Catherine Hayes would have envied the sweet and pathetic manner in which Marta sang the touching melody with which she entranced the audience. Never have we heard anything to surpass it, and if the audience, the public, indeed of Buenos Ayres, the fair Italian songstress would have been carried home in triumph. Her voice in the first act, sang 'Ah ride.' with much tenderness. "Buona notte" was well sung. At length Sir Tristram arrives to announce to the girls their escape by the window. This act closes with Lionel, Plunket, and the neighbours going in pursuit of Marta and Nancy.

The beer-song of Act III is a pretty piece, but the chorus was not sufficiently spirited to be encored. The curtain next appears, and Plunket suddenly recognizes Nancy in the guise of a lady of fashion, but she escapes from him. Lionel-Lionel-Lionel comes forward, being a verse of the Last Rose of Summer, after which is the beautiful ballad "Quando" sung by the disguised Marta, Marta tu sparisti,' was one of the gems of the opera. Lady Enrichetta crosses his path, and he at once throws himself at the feet of the disguised Marta, but she spurns him, whereon he claims her as his servant. The courtship of Lionel and Marta is pretty, and sent to prison for the insult. Throughout the whole of this Act, Briol and Lelmi supported their characters admirably.

Act IV opens with Plunkett bewailing the misfortune of his foster sister; they have been cast into prison for infancy a ring which he was told to shown to the Queen would release him from all danger. In the 2nd scene Enrichetta appears singing the verse of the Last Rose of Summer. She comes to deliver him from prison announcing to him that he is son of the late exiled Earl of Derby and has a message also to all the honors of his house: at the same time she offers him her hand and heart; this he refuses as he is a Catholic, and in a fit of phrensy he hurls her to the ground. The courtship scene between Plunkett and Nancy is full of graceful drollery and Walter sang 'Io conosco' with much espirlgleerie. The last scene is a renewal of Richmond Fair, and Marta and Nancy appear as before dressed as rustics. Lionel in amazement gradually recovers his senses, and Marta again sings the Last Rose of summer, when the curtain falls on the re-united lovers.

Long and enthusiastic plaudits followed after each Act, and at the close Lionel was summoned out to receive public congratulation. The opera will be repeated to night, and we would advise all who have not yet heard Briol in the Irish Melody to go to-night to Colon;

EDITOR'S TABLE

M. Riestra's paper money scheme is the talk of all the town. The produce brokers, who drive through our suburbs in 'milords,' think that Don Norberto is crazy. The fact of the matter is, that unless some decided steps are taken to abolish the paper money, the case is hopeless. M. Riestra's 'informe' omits the most salient point, that is, the excess of our imports over our exports.

The mud on the Barracas road is now so truly awful, that all the omnibusses have been obliged to leave the Calle Largo. Nothing can afford a greater proof of the utter insufficiency of our Municipal Board, than the neglected state of Calle Buen Orden and Calle Largo. There is an old wall on the hill, which is like the leaning tower of Pisa, but the first heavy rain which comes, will crumble it, and then God help the foot passengers beneath.

One of our distinguished shipbrokers has been seen canoeing in Rosario. This is a sign of the times. We predict that the day when vessels will be cleared for England, direct from Rosario; it is a fine port, and the people are kind and hospitable.

The subscription for the most wounded Danes has been headed by a milkman, who has contributed the no small sum of one thousand paper dollars. We hope to see the 'lechero's' example imitated.

The bridge over the Riachuelo, at Barracas, has at last been commenced. We understand that there is every probability that the trains will be running from town to Barracas in less than two months.

We forgot to mention a rather un happy accident which occurred to an Englishman in the river Parana last week. It appears that he went on board the Pavon, at San Pedro, to secure some fireworks, but unwisely getting into the jollyboat, his rope slipped, and he fell into the water; he was rescued, however, by an aquatic Italian.

The news from the camp is of a cheering nature. North, south, east and west, we hear the grass is abundant, and cattle farmers are doing well. The German land surveyor, who, we heard, was captured by the Indians while surveying Lozano's camp, is still safe, having never even seen an Indian since he left town.

The Nancy Riley has at last arrived safely in Buenos Ayres, notwithstanding the rumours about her loss which were circulated in town. The two English gentlemen passengers on board, who left in her for the purpose of buying land and wheat, have arrived safely,

Mr. Bosh's new house, alongside the Belen, promises to be even more commodious than Mr. Lumbi's. We prefer, however, our countryman's style of architecture. Mr. Lumbi's house is lofty and airy, and replete with ease and comfort. Mr. Bosh's edifice looks both small and narrow, but has built cavely for the same broker's office.

The steamer Parana arrived in Montevideo, from Liverpool, with a whole colony of Irish passengers. She left England on the 25th ult., but only stayed days later than the French packet, and, we believe, she brings no later news of any importance, but a very valuable cargo.

We regret to hear of Mr. Ruding's proposed departure from Montevideo. He had taken up the position of Inspector to control with in managing his bank, and was rather harshly treated by the authorities: his management of the bank has been pronounced by all those who are most interested, namely, the directors at home.

The Pavon brought no news from Peru. We suppose that the Spaniards have not attempted to go ashore on the mainland, and are probably satisfied with holding the Islands for the present. Meanwhile, there seems to be a sort of revolution brooding in Chile. At the elections there was terrible rioting, and Chilian affairs were beginning to look gloomy.

The province of Santiago has fallen into the possession of Entre Rios, in the vacancy of the post of Governor, by the family of the Taboadas, who had governed for such a long period, successively but yet with influence and intelligence. Their successor is Don Absalon Ibarra, son of the despotic ruler of that province, the Cardillo Ibarra, who governed for more than thirty years. The new Governor, his son, is a young man of about six or seven and twenty, very intelligent, and of an amiable character; last year he occupied a seat in Congress, as deputy for his province, and was married by proxy in Santiago. This advent to power we regard as a happy event for his province and all the country, as he is a firm believer in the efficacy of peace and anavitermoda politics.

REVOLUTION IN SALTA.

It would seem as if we are never to get done with revolutions in this Republic. As we mentioned the other day, the elections for Governor in the Province of Salta have been the cause of a revolution which, although happily bloodless, is, nevertheless, a striking proof of the debility of our government system.

The Province of Salta, which is the most distant in the Republic, is like all the other Provinces with the exception of Santiago, divided into two great political parties.

Had there been no elections, no new naming of Governor, there would have been no new orgy, these elections, &c., should be abolished.

Sr. Don C. Aguirre, who was last year deputy to Congress, is the leader of the opposition, and his party, as a matter of course, wanted to make him Governor.

Monsinhlo Governor Uriburu, who, we believe, is a good man, wanted to have his nephew as his successor.

Things were approaching a crisis in Salta, the opposition party preparing for a fight, and the Governor was determined to hold his own. Two days before the long talked-of elections broke off, the station took place.

A new Governor was appointed, by a sort of general vote of the people, and Uriburu, the very party which created this 'motin,' and executed all the disturbance, was actually defeated without a blow, and the Governor's nephew elected.

Both Aguirre and Savaria were defeated by their own constituents. But the best part of the joke has to be told; Governor Uriburu was actually put in prison by his own nephew, and the very man for whom he used his influence. It appears that the way this strange business was effected was, that Governor Uriburu, perceiving the efforts of the opposition, and the great probability of their determining that a put a stop to it, by a sort of coup d'etat The opposition candidate, it appears, had a majority in the Chambers. The Governor's country, therefore, determined to raise the revolution, put the old Governor in prison, for the sake of appearances, and elect the nephew.

This comic revolution in Salta, is one of the greatest burlesques on our federal system, and worthy the attention of all thinking Argentines.

NOTES IN A DILIGENCE.

From Rosario to San Juan.

The San Juan Silver Mines.

We have been favored with the following interesting remarks by a friend who recently made a trip to San Juan, the El Dorado of the Argentine Republic.

The distance from Rosario to San Juan is computed about 280 leagues, the towns through which the coach passes being as follows:—

	leagues	days
Rosario to Guardia Esquina	24	1
To Saladillo ...	16	1
To Fuyte Marcio ...	10	1
To Rio Cuarto ...	50	1
To Achiras ...	19	1
To Morro ...	13	1
To San Luis ...	25	1
To Mendoza ...	75	3
To San Juan ...	48	2
Total ...	280	12

From Rosario to Rio Cuarto the country is mostly level, the camps good and abounding in the pasture termed "pato fuerte." Between Saladillo and Rio Cuarto timber is very plentiful. Passing the last named place the surface becomes broken and the views on all sides mountainous. In succession we elicit along the base of the Sierras de Cordoba, Morro and San Luis. Nothing can be more picturesque than the situation of Achiras, Morro, and the city of San Luis, but the constant fear of the Indians effectually prevents any improvement in these towns.

The river separating the provinces of S. Luis and Mendoza is called Desaguadero, and there is a village of the same name. The road from S. Luis thither is remarkable, traversing in its whole length large forests of algarroba, quebracho and other species of timber, all hard wood. It is as straight as an arrow for 20 leagues of its length, and is 40 yards wide. It is without exception the finest road in the Republic, and if a little care were bestowed on it, would be at once a wonder and a model.

From Desaguadero to Mendoza is 55 leagues. Here the aspect of the country is different from anything yet seen, the land on all sides being cultivated. The road is lined on either side by poplars, far as the eye can reach, and the cultivation being by means of artificial water drains is well developed, the surrounding vegetation is quite astonishing and only comparable to that of the islands of the Parana. The extent of land under agriculture in Mendoza is found to exceed 60,000 cuadras (400,000 acres) chiefly occupied by alfalfa, vines and cereals. The agricultural industry consists in fattening cattle for the Chilian markets: they enclose the animals in a field of alfalfa, which when eaten down, they turn them into another, until sufficiently fat for sale. What appears almost incredible, though true, is that an alfalfa field once sown, requires no further labor than irrigation, and will yield abundant crops of pasture for 40 years or more. The amount of cultivated land in Mendoza is 35,000 cuadras (120,000 acres) so we, as in Mendoza, for the most part with shades, vines and cereals, and here also the chief business is fattening cattle for Chile.

The mountains on all sides abound in minerals: lead, silver, copper, and gold. There are also three coal mines in Huerta, Pié de Palo, and Jachal, which have not yet been worked, but are proved to contain rich and plentiful deposits: the abundance of timber has almost rendered the consumption of coal unnecessary.

The city of San Juan is well built and presents a pleasing aspect. Many of its streets are well paved, and each house has its own supply of water by means of a canal communicating with the Rio San Juan. The outskirts are charming, the city being surrounded by an amphitheatre of chains descending from the great Andes.

Mendoza and San Juan are capable of producing enough grain for the whole Republic, since their extensive irrigation ensures abundant crops. The vine districts are also sufficient to yield good wine for all the sister provinces, but for the present the want of facilities of transport prevents exportation to any large amount. Nevertheless at a future day this is destined to become one of the chief staples, for the wines of Mendoza and San Juan can advantageously compete with those of Europe in quality and price, since the latter can seldom cost more than 30 silver dollars per pipe.

The mines of San Juan have scarcely been worked before the present time, both on account of the disturbances in the Interior, and for want of capital and intelligent persons to direct the works. But there can exist no doubt of their enormous riches, and before another splendid results will established their pre-eminent superiority. Very extensive works are now being carried on at Tontal, Castaño, and Mercedario, and before six months we shall have tangible evidence of the great future which they promise.

There is one thing which greatly favors the rapid development of these mineral treasures with greater security, which is, the facility of sending at once the ore extracted to the refining establishments now in course of erection. Of these the first rank must be assigned to the Mining Company's works at Rinconada, directed by Major Mallet, who has lately commenced refining operations. Before the end of the year his magnificent machinery will be in full play, and then the treasures of these mines will be immediately turned to advantage. In a word this metallurgical establishment will be to an honor to the Argentine Republic.

Capture of the Steamer Bavaria by the British Frigate.

A telegram from Hamburg states that the Hamburg and American Company's steamship Bavaria, bound from Hamburg to New York, via Southampton, has been captured by the British frigate off the mouth of the Weser.

A despatch from Southampton, dated Tuesday evening says:—"The Bavaria had a large number of passengers on board, and the value of the ship and cargo is estimated at £120,000. The Bavaria left Cuxhaven early this morning to receive the French and English portion of her cargo, and was to have sailed for New York at midday on Wednesday, as we stated yesterday. The same Company's steamer Germania, which arrived here this morning with the Danish troops detained in the river off Nestly Hospital, waiting orders. It is not likely now that she will leave for Hamburg, as her passengers have been landed, and proceed to their destination via London. It is expected the Germania will discharge her cargo at Ostend, as the river is blocked up with bottoms for Hamburg, and she will sail from this port for New York direct."

PEDIGREE WHEAT.

Our indefatigable Argentine Consul in Liverpool, S R. Phillips, Esq., who is the best friend this country has in Europe, has presented to Mr. Rom, of the Belen, samples of this celebrated wheat.

We hope that Mr. Rom will take good care to inform the readers of our readers may judge of the importance which is attached to this celebrated wheat in England, by perusing the following extract from the Times.

"We have much pleasure in speaking to Mr. Hallett's statements, they being fully borne out by the specimens he presented to our notice. Referring to his advertisement in this journal, we can affirm that the 'Pedigree Wheat' is in no way overpraised or exaggerated."—Leading Article.

"It may be well to look to the certain circumstance which have led to any better state of things. It was only last week, then, that a correspondent drew our own notice this appeal:—'It would be a treat to see what I am certain it would be to hundreds of your readers, if the gentleman who advertises his wheat (an overpraising of the size of the head of which appears in your paper) would inform me through your columns where I can see any field, at present growing, which bears out his engraving and advertisement. I should travel any distance to see it, and would confirm in your columns what I now hesitate to believe, viz., that such a phenomenon was in existence in 1862, as a field with such a head of wheat as his represented.' If Mr. Hall should have been with us on Friday last, when we walked over Mr. Hallett's farm at Brighton, with the special object of judging for ourselves as to his wheats promised. We have strolled up to Kemp Town before now—have seen the selected ears blooming in the garden—have talked the most enthusiastic to his summer house 'study'—have listened and watched, and wondered, as he displayed individual grains pasted on paper and inscribed with appropriate lines in red and black ink—have heard their histories and pedigrees traced—their ultimate design foreshadowed—until last in a few days' time in consequence, we have asked ourselves, as we walked back to Brighton, whether any other man in the world would take as much trouble as he has? and if the result would ever be worth his trouble in case he should do so? The practical answer is apparent to all. We have travelled from the garden ground to the farm itself, and there in large pieces, of many acres' extent, on the hill side in the valley, in the plain, marked by far the finest wheat we have seen this season. Remarkable even in appearance, with a run of magnificent ears that can only be beat out the engraving and advertisement,' there is a crop that looks like seven or eight quarters an acre. Should this be so in the land on land anything like it has been sown, and with much of it that has scarcely been done justice to, in the way of cleaning."—Leading Article, August 4, 1862.

Argentine Literary Association

We have received the following circular, of which, as Sr. Mansilla informs us, 100 copies have been distributed among as many gentlemen of a literary 'turn' in Buenos Ayres, with the view of establishing a Literary Association. It would seem of a cosmopolitan character, since the Statutes of this paper have been included, and we cordially accept the idea, which was first started by Mr. Charles Murray, but could hardly hope to be realized, if confined to a small English population.

Buenos Ayres, June 1. 1864.

Dear Sir,

While Argentine literature is acquiring a development which gives great consolation for the past, and is coming to form a regular profession among us, there has been long felt the want of an assembly wherein, by an exchange of ideas, a mutuality of sentiment, and a sympathy of genius, might be brought about a fellowship worthy of society at large, and a fraternity in personal relations proper to men of the same calling. It is not enough for us to know each other in writings or publications; we must meet in social society and see and hear each other, if it be desirable to break off active prejudices and exalt our literature, the productions whereof are crippled and rendered sterile by habits of isolation. For these reasons we have conceived the idea of forming a "Circulo Literario," which will serve as a centre for our literary men of whatever shade of opinion. Trusting that you will aid us to carry out so laudable an enterprise, we beg to enlist your sympathies, in which case you will please send an affirmative reply to our address, 61 calle Tucuari.

When we shall have received answers from the gentlemen whom we have invited as founders of the Circulo Literario, we will call a meeting to arrange preliminaries and form a Committee to whom will be entrusted the task of drawing up the Regulations &c.

We salute you &c.

LUCIO V. MANSILLA.
JOSE MANUEL ESTRADA.

CONGRESS.

The National Chambers have adopted their old method of meeting on alternate days, a system not understood in England; they might easily arrange to sit, one by day, the other by night, so that the guardians of the nation might be ever on the watch, and surely there is plenty of business waiting to be despatched.

Dr. Camelino, after a long controversy, has been admitted Deputy for Corrientes,and we believe his friends are anxious to promote the interests of his province, especially in cotton-planting. Sr. Camelino has succeeded in the wrangling business of appointing a mayor-domo for the House, the matter being carried by a large majority.

There was a long debate on Wednesday about a letter from Sr. Portal, who has been elected Deputy for some of our inaccessible provinces, and thinks the honor not worth the journey. The Chamber resolved to answer him—with silent contempt.

The Senate yesterday passed the bill in payment of the Brazilian debt (contracted in ousting Rosas) amounting to 714,000 silver dollars, to be discharged by quarterly instalments of 17,850 dollars. M. Demarchi's bill, 2,200 dollars, for medicines for the victims of Mondoza, was also passed. The English, French, and Italian claims have been ratified in the same manner, and the legislators seem resolved to resume business after compounding with their creditors, the Republic being now financially what the Romans called Tabula rasa.

An important bill will be laid before the Deputies to-day, declaring "that La Plata will never recognise any Monarchy erected on the ruins of a South American Republic." It is more sensible than Sr. Sagui's project in the Provincial Chambers, to lend President Mitre aid to co-operate with Peru, adding that "we will keep our Buenos Ayres if necessary." Heavens and earth, this is worse than Ercelart's vow! Surely, we are not Russians.

London B. A. and R. P. Bank.

We are informed on good authority that Mr. J. C. Ruding, whose able management of the above bank in Montevideo was so favourably alluded to in the first report presented to the shareholders, on the 18th December last, and in the chairman's address on that occasion, a full account of which appeared in the 'Standard' of 16th February, is about to retire from the bank. Mr. Ruding, we are informed, tendered his resignation by the packet of 30th September, which has at length been accepted, and his successor may now shortly be expected.

PASSENGERS PER PARANA.

Mr. David McMullen, James Walsh, Maria Walsh, John Walsh, John Schriver, Amelia Schriver, Pritchet Schriver, William Cowell, Thomas Kirkpatrick, Patrick Morris, John Lockhart, Robert Richardson, Michael Boyd, Eilen Patrick, Joseph Ronayne, M. Ronayne, Rosa Ronayne, Ann Hynes, P. Rogers, Morgan Egan.

LOCAL EVENTS.

Peruvian Admiral—We learn that Admiral Pinzon's antagonist is an Englishman who served as cockswain in the British navy several years.

Lacunte—Dr. Rawson's Memorial to the N. Congress is in press : it covers 326 sheets foolscap M.S.

Street duel—At 5.30 p.m. Monday night two fellows were talking at the corner of Calles Cuyo and Talcahuano, when pulling out two pistols they fired at each other, and then ran away.

Ferrer and Maiz—This firm is just started for general commission business, the senior partner being favorably known among us as the English cus tom-house broker.

The New Literary Society.—Our native friends have taken the hint from Messrs. Murray and Williams, and are now about starting, what our country-men failed in. A Literary Society is about to be started under the auspices of Messrs. Mansilla and Estrada. The object of the Society is to foment Argentine Literature. We have no doubt that if politics are excluded the Society will be generally successful, but this is a sine qua non. We understand all the literati of Buenos Ayres have promised to join the new society, which if properly managed cannot fail to be highly beneficial.

Reforma Bancaria—Our Montevidean colleague finds fault with us for mis-stating some remarks published in that paper respecting the confidence of the Brazilian officers to the Emperor's command. We suppose that our colleague, who knows infinitely more about the subject, is correct in his remarks; we know precious little about the affair; we suppose therefore we must have made a mistake.

Flores—We read in the Montevideoan papers that from Mercedes to Paysandu there is not a single Florista to be seen; it would seem that the regenerator and his merry men have left the coast of the Uruguay.

Steamer to Corrientes—On next Sunday the Esmeralda will leave this port for Corrientes, and we learn this line will not be suspended, but continue as before.

Great Meeting—It is proposed to hold a meeting in Plaza Retiro at the foot of General San Martin's statue, probably on next Sunday.

Excursion—President Mitre, accompanied by his War Secretary, went on board an English gun-boat yesterday. The vessel proceeded to the outer roads, fired a salute, and landed his Excellency a few hours after.

Balloon Ascent—Mr. Wells will make his second ascent on Sunday at 1 p.m., weather permitting.

Mail for Chile—Mr. Wells is going around town hunting for a mountain-barometer. He asserts, with the utmost seriousness, going across the pampas to Mendoza (600 leagues) in 30 hours, and if the wind serves will cross the Andes in 40 hours. Who will undertake to accompany him.

ON 'CHANGE.

June 9, 1864.

Paper price of ounces, 46d.

The Boles was crowded to day, but business in specie was less than usual : in fact, the sales of patacons were so few, that, on a minute calculation, it appears the ounce brokers earned, on an average, seven paper dollars each.

All sorts of conjectures were current on 'Change to-day, respecting the cause of the great falling off in business. Many believe that the Riestra scheme is the reason, whilst others assert that foreign coin is now becoming so plenty and current amongst us, that the majority of specie transactions between the merchants are done at the counting-house, without Polus interference. Meanwhile, and notwithstanding that not three thousand ounces were sold, patacons rose to-day, opening at 28.70, and closing at 28.80.

The mock revolution, it is said, has a good deal to do with this, as several "bulls" were busy, with rumours of private despatches received, &c.

The National Government has paid into the bank four millions of paper money, which, now, will be consumed on Monday. The punctuality of the Minister in meeting this engagement, merits our greatest praise, the discount of the nation's credit is this monthly burning, and we hope never to see it tampered with again.

The steamer Ebro, with 26 passengers, arrived in port from Montevideo and Liverpool.

Since the arrival of the French packet we notice increased activity in our Wool Market. The buyers, who are principally French and German, are paying six and seven dollars the arroba now more than a fortnight ago. All the deposit stores are ransacked every morning. The arrivals from the camp are meagre, and we think very little remains outside. In the South Plaza we hear the total stock of wool is 25,000 arrobas. A few hundred arrobas of very good wool was sold in the Plaza at $10.00 per arroba.

We notice that the British barque 'Crest of the Couch' has been chartered to load in Montevideo for England salted hides at 42s 6d., and the British brig 'Daniel Dwyer,' at the same rate for the same destination.

The English brig 'Delight' has cleared for England with five hundred and fifty bales of Paraguayan tobacco. We hope to see a large export business done this year in this article.

The steamer Ern is repairing and will be ready to leave as usual for the Uruguay on Monday next.

Salted hides appear to be going up faster here than at home. The last important sale, 7,000 Rosario hides at 43 1-2 rls., is unusually high, although if report be correct, saladeristas are talking of 47 and 48 rls.

We forgot yesterday to mention a sale of horned cattle at the extremely low price of $70, and on credit. This is a ruinously low price, and speaks bad for camp interests.

SAVINGS BANK
BANK MAUA & C°

No. 103 calle de Cangallo.

BUENOS-AYRES.

The immense advantages of Accounts Current are now so generally felt, and appreciated in the two great emporiums of the River Plate—Montevideo & Buenos Ayres—that there are very few Merchants who fail to keep one at the Bank in which they place the most confidence.

The Bank of Maua & Co. in Montevideo has already provided for the working class in that city, a safe & profitable depository for their savings.

The sums deposited in that most important institution are daily increasing and already reach a very large amount.

These advantages have not hitherto been enjoyed in this city by an immense number of Clerks, artisans, working-men & servants of all classes & conditions, who are equally interested in putting their savings out at interest, thus providing themselves with a reserve fund in case of need, sickness or old age, instead of spending them in the immoral gambling, in lotteries and other frivolities.

The Bank of Maua and Co. of this city following the example of their firm in Montevideo now offer the same facilities in this city and will open on the 1st October a "Savings Bank" at No. 103 calle Cangallo from 9 a. m. to 3 p. m. on week days, and on Sundays and holidays from 10 a. m. to 12 m. for the reception of the savings of the classes already mentioned.

The Bank will deliver to each depositor a Pass Book in which will be entered the amount deposited and withdrawn.

The depositor is permitted at any time to withdraw the whole or part of the sum deposited, in the former case the interest will be calculated up to date.

The Bank of Maua and Co. is sufficiently known to the public by the benefit derived from the course of its operations which are regulated on the strictest and soundest principles and always directed to promote the general welfare.

The Bank of Maua and Co. are also persuaded that this new branch of their business will render immense service to the working classes of Buenos Ayres and its neighbourhood.

Buenos Ayres September 19th 1863.

p. p. Maua & Co.
WILLIAM LESLIE.

CONDITIONS,

1st. The Bank receives at interest any sum from Twenty five dollars currency or one silver dollar upwards.

2nd. The interest allowed is six per cent [6 p$] per annum which is liquidated every six months.

3rd. The depositor can at any time retire the whole or part of the money deposited.

4th. Once the amount deposited exceeds Twenty five thousand dollars currency or one thousand dollars silver the depositor if he wishes can open an account current excepting in the rules established by the Bank.

5th. In case the depositor loses his Pass Book it can be replaced by another on paying twelve dollars currency, and advertising the loss in the public newspapers.

1st. On one's own life, in shares of $5 silver and upwards. These subscriptions liquidated at any time, at the subscriber's time and option.

2nd. Without loss of capital by death of the insurer. Subscribers will be entitled to compound interest on their subscriptions and the proportional interest forfeited by the death of other shareholders in their Class, whose capital, however, is returned.

3rd. With loss of capital, by death of the insurer All shareholders of this class shall gain compound interest on their subscriptions, besides a proportional part of the capital and interest of all who die in their Class

All these subscriptions may be paid weekly, monthly, quarterly, half yearly, or yearly.

The capital of the Company shall be invested only in landed property (finca), and with the greatest security.

The Board of Inspection, composed of subscribers, shall have charge of all the operations of the Company.

Subscriptions in Paper Money.

The Directors, wishing to enlarge the operations of the Society, have acceded to the request of many people in the city, and determined to issue shares payable in Paper Money of Buenos Ayres, under the following conditions:—

Article 65—From the 1st of April, 1864, shares shall be issued to such persons as may wish to pay in Paper Money of Buenos Ayres, and in accordance with Article 17 chapter 5 of the Statutes of the Society, the lowest sum receivable being $300 annually, payable in one sum, or in instalments, subject to the following rules:

1st.—For Paper Money Subscribers sections will be opened and kept separate from Silver Money Subscribers.

2nd.—The liquidation of the sums belonging to the sections of Paper Money Subscribers will be administered according to Article 31 of the Statutes, and for account of these particular sections.

By these means the Directory hopes to gain its object, which is to enable the poorer classes to enjoy all the advantages of the Society.
